

The World History in the 1900: European and American Imperialism II

Wanjiru Waweru

HI-105-OL: Modern World History

Professor Aldo Garcia-Guevara

February 6, 2022

Imperialism

Imperialism is a type of international hierarchy in which only political community effectivity government or take over another political community. It became one of the eldest and most recognize political institutions, arranging the history events between in earliest Mesopotamia, China, and present Europe.

CrashCourse

CrashCourse considered as an educational video which appears on the YouTube channel which the Green Brothers, John and Hank who first earned and received the YouTube platform on their Vlogbrothers channel. They produced several courses including Chemistry, Theater, Literature, and World History. They joined with Arizona State University to extend more courses to provide viewers with more information.

Expansion and Resistance: Crash Course European History #28

Imperialism considered as the quest for the colonial empires which extended the history and established the United States that terrorize above the continental boundaries that fits into the category. Some people debated that Americans had always took over the empire due the intent of American Revolution. Imperialism appeared when a conquer went in change to take the over the world which disrupts the region. “Sometimes they use political, economic, or military force to do this. The period between the 18th and 20th centuries is known as the Age of Imperialism.”¹ The Influence of Seapower upon History fought for American to become the “great sea power” as

¹ “Motives for European Imperialism,” Students of History, accessed January 24, 2022, <https://www.studentsofhistory.com/motives-for-european-imperialism>.

Britain. The United States wanted to take control of the seas to dominate the international commerce to inspire the canal that connects to Central America.

Crash Course: Imperialism World History #35

John Green taught his audience about European Imperialism in the 19th Century. European powers started to develop the colonial empires in the 16th century, therefore, the industry took over in the 19th Century, including the Asia and Africa. By 1830s, British free trade policy unleashed a flood of opium in China. Treaty of Nanjing stated that “Britain got Hong Kong and five other treaty ports as well as the equivalent of two billion dollars in cash.”² Taiping rebellion considered as an massive war that located in the Southern China from 1850 to 1864, in the anticipation of conquering Machu-Led Qin Dynasty. It became a millenarian movement in world history. The European Nation dominated the economic power in China after the Taiping Rebellion. The Scramble of Africa begin in the 19th Century. The European terrorized the African Continent through invasion, occupation, division, colonization, and annexation between 1881 and 1914. Technology made it possible for the Scramble of Africa. The Europeans wanted colonies in Africa because they wanted to secure source of raw materials. During the Scramble of Africa, they used three new innovations: Steam Ships, Quinine Medicine, and Machine Guns. Fuel the growing Industrial Economies became useful for raw materials. Back then, the European could not control Africa because there were serious diseases including Nagana, and Yellow Fever. Most European Colonizers resorted to Indirect Rule, relying on governments which became exerting to take over their leaders. Access to European ² “Imperialism: Crash Course World History #35 - Quizlet,” accessed January 25, 2022, <https://quizlet.com/283465453/imperialism-crash-course-world-history-35-flash-cards/>.

Education was the advantage for Indian Rulers who joined in Indirect Rule that led by the Europeans.

Crash Course: American Imperialism US History #28

John Green educated to his viewers about the history of Imperialism in the United States. In the late 19th century, the significance strength of Europe ruled almost the entire world. The United States also known as the “young country,” engaged in peer pressure along with some countries independently. The United States noted that Spain’s grasp on to their empire that became fragile. According to Youtube, “like some kind of expansionist predator, it jumped into the Cuban War for Independence and turned it into the Spanish-Cuban-Phillipino-American War, which usually just gets called the Spanish-American War.”³ He explained to his viewers on how American transferred the Spanish-American War into colonial possessions as Puerto Rico, The Philippines, and Cuba. The United States occupied in the Pacific along with the conquer of Hawaii.

Conclusion

Imperialism concentrated on the world history of the political community. The European Imperialism control almost around the nation to create their own colony due to impact of indirect rule. The American Imperialism develop their own territory to fight their independence nation for their country.

³ crashcourse, “American Imperialism: Crash Course US History #28,” YouTube (YouTube, September 5, 2013), <https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=QfsfoFqsFk4>.

Bibliography

“Crashcourse.” YouTube. YouTube. Accessed January 21, 2022.

<https://www.youtube.com/c/crashcourse/about>.

“Imperialism.” Imperialism - an overview | ScienceDirect Topics. Accessed January 21, 2022.

<https://www.sciencedirect.com/topics/social-sciences/imperialism>

Leib, Bart. “Scishow & Crash Course: Why Isn't School This Cool?” Wired. Conde Nast, March 23, 2012. <https://www.wired.com/2012/03/scishow-crash-course/>.

CrashCourse. “Expansion and Resistance: Crash Course European History #28,” December 3, 2019. <https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=eBA7P-zKbi8>.

“Motives for European Imperialism.” Students of History. Accessed January 24, 2022.

<https://www.studentsofhistory.com/motives-for-european-imperialism>.

“Best Crash Course #28 Flashcards | Quizlet.” Accessed January 24, 2022.

<https://quizlet.com/136750790/crash-course-28-flash-cards/>.

crashcourse. “Imperialism: Crash Course World History #35.” YouTube. YouTube, September 20, 2012. <https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=alJaltUmrGo>.

crashcourse. “American Imperialism: Crash Course US History #28.” YouTube. YouTube, September 5, 2013. <https://www.youtube.com/watch/QfsfoFqsFk4>.