

Knowing My Interest

1. My professors, supervisors, and family always compliment me on my hard work and dedication.
2. I was never surprised when I was good at a new project, task, or specific assignment, and there was no skill involved. It comes naturally.
3. My greatest abilities are research writing, creativity, and organization.
4. As a communication major, my favorite class that I like the best is the Beatles class because it explores the progression of the music industry.
5. The capstone project ideas would aligned to my class is to write about is Copyright Infringement because I wanted to show them about the experience in the music industry. The form of project would help future employees is to see my growth throughout my website: www.beautifulpalace.weebly.com.

Understanding my interests

1. In my future, I want to work at the Pitchfork company and Women's Health magazine.
2. I enjoy working as a Amazon Team Shopper. I love making blogs and podcasts. I also enjoy dancing, hiking, and fashion.
3. During activities I do not get involve to lose track of time. If success was guaranteed and money was no object, I would like to accomplish in my life in being successful and consistency.

Start Exploring

1. I am with people who are able to help me regardless of what I am going through school, work, and other issues to work on weakness to increase growth.

2. I am working with information on my laptop to work on a podcast, doing a writing assignment for the communication internship, and creating a blog.
3. I work with my hands for cooking food, doing grocery shopping, and taking notes during virtual meetings.